Madison, Wisconsin -- Stephen P. Sinnott, Acting United States Attorney for the Western District of Wisconsin, announced that Raymond Govednik, DOB: 8/3/1963, of Savage, Minnesota, was sentenced today by Chief U.S. District Judge Barbara B. Crabb to 30 months in prison and 3 years of supervised release for bank robbery.

On February 8, 2005, Govednik robbed the First National Bank of Hudson of $6,142. Govednik was apprehended by the Woodbury, Minnesota police less than one-half hour after the robbery, driving a green Windstar minivan that had been described by witnesses to the robbery. Police recovered all the money from the robbery in the van. Govednik confessed to an FBI agent that he had planned and executed the robbery.

The charges against Raymond Govednik were the result of an investigation conducted by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the Hudson Police Department, and the Woodbury Police Department. Prosecution of the case has been handled by Assistant U.S. Attorney Robert A. Anderson.
